VOL. LIX: No. 50. REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1920. ESTABLISHED 1859

J. P. COLEMAN WAS DISMISSED AS CHIEF OF POLICE FORCE

At a special meeting of the city board of trustees held Monday evening the office of chief of police was declared vacant, thus Chief of Police J. P. Coleman was "fired," and C. L. Collins, of Fresno, was appointed to the position of chief of police.

The action of the board in this matter was a surprise to the people of Redwood City, inasmuch as Mr. Coleman had been highly praised for his efficient services at an open meeting held a week previous, when a large delegation of citizens were present. The meeting Monday evening seemed to be a private affair and while the matter of dismissing the chief of police is of vital interest to every resident of the city it is the opinion of the majority that the action was uncalled for at a meeting of this kind.

Chief Coleman has been connected with the police department for about twenty years and has proven himself a capable officer. He has served the city faithfully, playing no favorites and why he was dismissed at this time is a mystery.

It is understood that Mr. Collins is to receive $175 a month while Mr. Coleman was paid $150, this being raised from $125 at a recent meeting.

R. J. LETTS AND R. E. WHITE FORMED CO-PARTNERSHIP

Robert J. Letts and R. E. White have combined forces for a big real estate business. They have been operating separate offices but will now work together. They have listed a large amount of choice realty in and around Redwood City and other portions of the peninsula. The concern will be known as Robert J. Letts and Company. See their advertisement in another page for bargains. Read it carefully.

He was a young man of excellent character and his jovial disposition attracted many sincere friends to him.

Mr. Colbourn is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ada M. Colbourn of Palo Alto, and a brother, Percy Colbourn in England and two sisters, one living in England and Mrs. C. A. Rebitt of 127 Elwood street, Redwood Highlands, Redwood City.

J. C. COBURN FILES ACTION AGAINST C. H. WIDEMAN

J. C. Coburn, guardian ad litem of Wallace Coburn, the incompetent son of Loren Coburn, deceased, yesterday brought an action in the superior court against C. H. Wideman to set aside the option for the purchase of the Coburn ranch at Pescadero secured in 1914 for $375,000. The complaint alleges that the option was secured when Loren Coburn was incompetent. The option was filed in the recorder's office on November 12, 1918, just before that office closed. Loren Coburn passed away next day. The complaint alleges that the ranch is worth $600,000.

Wilson and Wilson are the attorneys for the petitioner.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETS

The republican county central committee held a meeting in the town hall at San Mateo on Thursday evening and launched the campaign for the forthcoming primary in May.

The county was divided into ten zones to be in charge of a captain and a number of co-workers who will urge the electors to vote and see to it that they vote on the day of election. The republican party is to make a strenuous campaign to get every republican to the polls. The county was divided into the following zones to be in charge of the following captains appointed by Mr. MacBain:

Daly City, H. H Smith; South San Francisco and Colma, Thomas Hickey; San Bruno, Lomita Park and Millbrae, Dr. F. Holmes Smith; Burlingame, L. A. Cavalera; Hillsborough, John Hoey; San Mateo, J. E. McCurdy; Beresford, Belmont and San Carlos, Walter A. Emmett Jr.; Redwood City, H. C. Tuchsen; Menlo Park, Atherton and Woodside and Portola, D. E. O'Keefe; Fourth Township, C. L. Morgan; Fifth Township, Dr. C. V. Thompson.

Ernest Werder was appointed assistant secretary of the county committee. The captains will appoint their assistants at once. The next meeting of the committee will be held at the courthouse on Saturday, March 20, at 3 o'clock.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ASK REMOVAL OF 5C TELEPHONE TOLLS

Tuesday evening there was a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in which the matter of asking the telephone company to eliminate the five cent charge or toll to telephone subscribers who live in the Atherton district when connections are made with Redwood City.

A resolution was presented and adopted protesting against the five-cent toll which will be presented to to telephone company. A representative of the company was present but was unable to say what could be done at this time, any more than explaining that the government was responsible for the toll charge. The lines are in the hands of private parties now and probably something may be done.

It was justly brought out that this territory belonged to Redwood City and that the company was discriminating inasmuch as people living in the immediate vicinity of Redwood City could call Palo Alto without paying the toll, while if they would call this city, only a short distance from their homes, it would cost them five cents.

The merchants claimed that their business had fallen off greatly on account of this toll.

CHARGED WITH CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS

The preliminary examination of Herman Edwin Mootz, charged with carrying concealed weapons with intent to use the same was held before Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin on Thursday afternoon, the charge was testified to by the former wife of the defendant, in that she claimed, that the defendant threatened to kill her; the defendant was armed at the time, but did not attempt to use any weapon. No testimony was offered by the defendant, and he was held for trial before the superior court. The defendant will be defended by Joseph J. Bullock in the superior court.

LOREN DIAZ BRINGS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Loren E. Diaz has brought an action in the superior court against his wife, Katherine Diaz for a divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married in Oakland on July 24, 1916 and separated on February 3, 1919. They have no children and no community property. A. Kincaid is the attorney for plaintiff.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

William Christensen has retained Attorney Albert Mansfield to defend him. He is accused of accompanying William Haney to Baden where he killed a taxi driver. Young Christensen says he did not know the purpose of Haney when he accepted the invitation of Haney for the ride. All circumstances surrounding the case bears out this statement. Public opinion is strongly in favor of the young man.

The Irish bond drive in this county has gone over the top. The quota for the county is $25,000 and the amount already collected far exceeds that sum. The quota for Redwood City is $2800. Up to a late hour last evening over $2000 was in the hands of the committee. It is expected by this evening the full quota will be reached. The drive closes on March 17. Thomas Curran is the solicitor.

The registration of voters for municipal elections closed last night. Electors failing to register cannot vote at the municipal elections in April. There is still plenty of time to register for the May primaries. Mrs. Nash kept her office open until a late hour in order to accommodate the voters. The normal registration at the fall elections for Redwood City is 1500 and when the books were closed last evening a little over that number had registered showing that the interest to be taken in the forthcoming municipal contest. It is believed that over two-thirds of the voters have registered.

Mrs. James Robinson motored from here last week to Santa Barbara where she will be the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stow until the end of the month. Her attractive home here will be closed until that time.

Married—At Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, February 25, 1920, Earle E. George and Florence Armstrong both of Egremont, Alberta, Canada.

M. A. McCann, the real estate broker, reports a big demand for property in Fair Oaks Acres, the Barney tract near town. Eight parcels were sold this week by him to parties who intend to improve their holdings at once.

Mrs. Nathan Graves of Rochester, New York, arrived in South San Francisco last Tuesday to visit her brother, Andrew Hynding. Before her marriage Mrs. Graves was Miss Cecilia Hynding of this city. Mr. Graves died last year in Rochester and his wife took charge of his photographic establishment which is one of the best in that section of the state.

Mr. S. P. McCrea was in Madera last Saturday and Sunday attending to business.

Edward Eugene Boicelli the ten-month old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boicelli passed away at the home of his parents on the State Highway last Saturday. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their great bereavement.

The Sunday Examiner contained a notice that Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Spivolo and little daughter had left San Francisco to make their future home in London. Mr. Spivalo grew to manhood in Belmont and attended the Redwood City grammar school.

Frank Paul who is now living in Stockton where he attends the Stockton high school, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his father, R. F. Paul.

Charles Curran who is employed by the George E. Stafford Mercantile company had the misfortune to have his right arm broken at the wrist Wednesday by the kick-back of his Ford machine. The injury is very painful and Charley will probably be laid up for a couple of weeks. As a guess we would say that these have been pretty nearly as many good right arms injured by Ford cars as there were by bullets in the late great war.

D. C. Howard, who lost his wife last week ,with his family will move to Sacramento today to permanently reside. Mr. Howard is engaged in the contracting business at the capital. His beautiful home in Redwood Highlands has been sold to Edward Dearborn, city superintendent of streets.

Meet me again tonight at Foresters Hall, Redwood City. A large crowd attended the dance given by this club last Saturday and a larger crowd is expected tonight as those that were there last time are still talking of the good time. Dancing will commence at 8.

The Irish bond drive is on. Every Irishman who loves the land of his birth should subscribe to the worthy cause which might be the means of breaking the chains that has held Ireland in bondage for centuries. The captain of the drive is Thomas Curran who will call on every lover of freedom. We bespeak a liberal response on the part of the people for him.

During the week Mrs. Mary W. Casey took over the Crystal Laundry on Main street. Mr. Falconer who was incharge departed last Monday for San Francisco. Mrs. Casey is the widow of James Casey who was the original owner of the laundry.

It was rumored yesterday that an opposition ticket would be placed in the field against the present trustees whose terms expire next month. Several prominent men are mentioned in connection with the proposed ticket. The time for filing nominations will expire on March 23.

Everything is in readiness for the two mid-lenten dances to be given in the Foresters Hall, Redwood City, on March 20 and 27. The proceeds of these two dances are to be used in financing the big May Day celebration, which is to be the biggest gala day that the people of Redwood and vicinity have seen yet. Mullen's orchestra is to play for the two dances and that in itself is an assurance of a large crowd.

H. L. WILLIAMS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

H. L. Williams, the butcher, who is charged with an assault upon C. H. Lucas on Monday last, was admitted to bail by Judge Griffin on Wednesday in the sum of $2000, the bondsmen being Thomas Tuite and R. F. Chilcott. Mr. Williams has retained John D. Willard and F. A. Reynolds to defend him. Dr. J. P. H. Dykes and Dr. J. L. Ross reported that C. H. Lucas would be out of the hospital in a few days.

Some time ago Mr. Williams sold the Capitol Market to Lucas, London and Collins. They took possession. Last week Williams attached the market for $684, alleged to be due him. Bad blood existed between the men. Monday morning Lucas went to the slaughter house where Williams was working. A quarrel ensued. Williams says that Lucas drew a pistol and threatened to shoot him when he backed up and secured an ax, struck his pursuer a glancing blow. Lucas fell and was shortly afterwards taken to the Redwood City hospital by Sheriff Sheehan. Williams was taken to the county jail. Williams claims he struck Lucas in self defense.

MRS. E. E. THOMPSON APPLIES FOR LETTERS

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Thompson, through her attorney, Archer Kincaid, has applied in the superior court for letters of administration upon the estate of Francis H. Thompson, who died at Redwood City on February 24, 1920. The entire value of the estate is placed at $6000. It comprises of a parcel of land and improvements in Finger Park, Redwood City valued at $3000, cash in bank amounting to $2500, butcher shop and fixtures in Redwood City worth $300.

The heirs at law are the petitioner, the surviving wife and Lillian B. Thompson, aged 13, Dorothy Thompson and Frank A. Thompson, both aged six, children of the deceased.

THE IRISH REPUBLIC BOND DRIVE IS MEETING WITH SUCCESS

The sale of bonds for the "Republic of Ireland" which is taking place in all parts of the county is meeting with greater success than was anticipated by the American Commission on Irish Independence.

The hearts of the American people are with the Irish in their struggle for freedom, as were the hearts of the Irish with America in 1776. The words "Liberty" and "America" are synonimous and as loyal Americans we cannot be other than sympathetic with the Irish in its struggle for liberty.

America's cause in 1776 is Ireland's cause today. When that immortal patriot, Patrick Henry, on March 23, 1775, espoused the caues of liberty before the Virginia house of Bourgesses and said, "Give me Liberty or give me Death," and when Nathan Hale, speaking from the scaffold before his execution in 1776 said, "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country,' 'they but gave voice to the sentiment within the breasts of all patriotic Americans. The Irish are by no means wanting in that sentiment and have been laying down their lives for centuries to attain the priceless boon "Liberty."

Yes, and not only for the liberty and independence of Ireland but when the price paid in 1776 for the liberty of this glorious land of ours, was purchased by the blood of patriots, 67 per cent of that blood was Irish blood, making it possible for us to enjoy the fruit of that dearly bought liberty; and now today the Irish people ask us to make a small return for their sacrifices for our benefit. They ask us to help them attain that which they so heroically helped us to attain in 1776. They do not ask us to offer up our lives as a sacrifice for their weal but they merely ask us for moral and financial support in their trouble.

Their cause is so just that it deserves our unqualified support.

John W. Roberson has brought an action in the superior court against his wife, Elda Roberson for an inetrlocutory decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. They were married at San Francisco on May 21, 1914 and separated on March 1, 1920. F. A. Reynolds is the attorney for plaintiff.

THE SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, March 8, 1920, there beinng present Chairman John Mac Bain presiding, T. L. Hickey, Jos. M. Francis, absent Dr. C. V. Thompson.

Following the roll call by Mrs. Nash, the clerk, Supervisor Hickey arose and moved that the board adjourn out of respect to the memory of upervisor William H. Brown, who passed away on Thursday morning, and that District Attorney wart be asked to prepare suitable resolutions of condolence to be sent to the widow.

Tuesday's Session

The board reconvened on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Chairman MacBain presiding and there being present Supervisors T. L. Hickey, Jos. M. Francis and Dr. C. V. Thompson.

The first order of busines was the adoption of a resolution prepared by District Attorney Swart in respect to the memory of the late Supervisor Brown, a copy of which was ordered sent to Mrs. Brown, the widow. The resolution read as follows:

"Board of Supervisors, County of San Mateo, State of California.

"We, the members of, and as now constituting the Board of Supervisors of the County and State, would record our tribute of respect to the memory of our colleague, William H. Brown, who died in San Mateo on March 4, 1920.

"William Henry Brown was born in Nevada County, California, January 11, 1862. He lived his life in the State of his birth, and had lived in San Mateo of San Mateo County half a century.

"From his early manhood he took an active part in civic affairs.

"In his own city he was one of the first of the organizers and a leader in the San Mateo fire department. Thereafter he was elected city trustee and served as chairman of the board of trustees during the trying times of 1906.

"At his death he was serving his third term as a member of this Board of Supervisors, over which he presided as chairman for many years

"He was at all times prominently identified with organized movements of progress and development in his district and county. He knew the county, he knew his district. He knew the name, the residence, the needs, if any, of every person in his district. He was a friend of the public school. In service he knew no political enemies. He was fair to the rich, and a friend to the unfortunate.

"In this brief summary is recorded in barest outline a life devoted to neighbor ,community and ocunty. On issues pertaining to morals and the home he was clean. In civic affairs he was active, honest and progressive. In contact with man he was kindly, sympathetic and helpful.

"His chair in this chamber was seldom, if, ever, vacant. But once we missed him in his illness. Now we most regretfully miss him in his eternal absence. He leaves unto himself a monument of service to the generations to come.

"The above resolutions are hereby adopted by the members of the board of supervisors asembled in the chambrs of said board this 9th day of March, 1920.

"Signed, John MacBain, Dr. C. V. Thompson, T. L. Hickey, Jos. M. Francis."

Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud appeared before the board and read a letter he had received from the trustees of the South San Francsco school district, asking that a part of the territory now included in the San Bruno school district be included in the South San Francisco district. This territory, as explained in the letter, is now within the incorporated limits of the city of South San Francisco.

On motion of Hickey, seconded by Thompson, the superintendent of schools was directed to have the South San Francisco school district boundaries adjusted, according to the requirements of the law, so that the territory in question could be taken into that district.

A communication was received from Architect J. R. Miller, asking for certain data relative to the survey of the ground for the new county hospital.

Chairman MacBain stated that he had taken this matter up with County Surveyor Kneese and had instructed the latter to send this necessary information to all the competing architects.

Communications relative to the above matter were also received and read from Architects W. L. Schmolle and Edwards & Kuhn.

A communication was received from Architect W. D. Shea, in which he acknowledged receipt of a copy of the program for the hospital and stating that he would be glad to compete in the contest for furnishing the plans for the building.

T. M. Edwards of the firm of Edwards & Kuhn addressed the board relative to securing an extension of time for submitting the plans for the hospital. He stated that considerable time had ben lost by all the architects on account of their not having the engineering data spoken of above.

After considerable discussion, in which the majority of the members of the board seemed to favor granting an extension it was decided to lay the matter over until the next meeting of the board, March 16.

The report of W. J. Graef, in charge of the squirrel extermination operations in the county, conducted under the direction of the United States Public Health service, showed the following activities during the month of February, 1920:

Number of reinspections	207
Acres reinspected	84,139
Acres treated	2,948

The report was ordered filed.

The report of County Auditor J. J. Shields showing the amount of money that can be expended against the various funds during the month of March, 1920, was received and ordered filed.

The report of County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain showing the condition of the treasury of the county for the three months ended March 6 1920, was received and ordered filed.

Chairman MacBain announced the appointment of Supervisor T. L Hickey as chairman of the finance committee of the board to take the place of the late Supervisor Brown.

The regular monthly claims, having been approved by the finance committee, were allowed on motion of Thompson ,seconded by Francis.

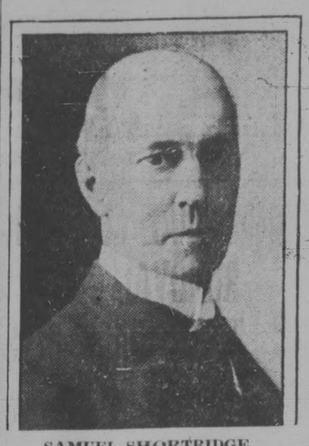
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE FOR SENATOR



SAMUEL SHORTRIDGE

ALTHOUGH he has made no formal announcement of his intention, it is now very generally believed that Samuel M. Shortridge will be a candidate for United States Senator. No one asks his politics, for he is known in every nook and corner of the State as the champion of Republicanism. He is an orator of splendid ability, a profound student of government, and for over a quarter of a century has freely given his services to the Republican party.

Mr. Shortridge is possessed of the quality of mind which makes constructive statesmanship. His knowledge of public men and public questions, his readiness of reasoning, his faculty of expression and accuracy of discernment distinguish him as being eminently fitted for the senatorship. Moreover, he is tireless in his energy, unimpeachable in his personal integrity and uncompromising in his attitude toward all infraction of the public rectitude.

Mr. Shortridge's attitude with respect to the tariff and his faith in the Constitution of our country are well known. On the question of great importance to California, namely the Japanese question, he has expressed himself in no uncertain terms.

As far back as 1901, following the Anti-Chinese convention held in San Francisco, he gave what is perhaps the most convincing exposition of the logic of California's attitude with respect to this question that has ever been set forth. In opposing the argument in favor of "Cheap labor," he said:

"Cheap labor. We do not want cheap labor, we want well-paid labor. We want intelligent, patriotic, contented labor. We want no antagonistic races; we want no hostile classes; we want no castes, we want no aliens, incapable of Republican government. We want an intelligent, self-respecting, prosperous ,and loyal American citizenship which shall guide this nation onward and upward and make this Republic the grandest and greatest brotherhood the world has ever seen."

He has always been opposed to Chinese and Japanese immigration and stands today as he has always stood—for American labor.

Commenting on current events, he recently said:

"Ex-Senator Beveridge is a very able and a very eloquent man, but manifestly he has no commission to commit the Republican party to any policy. Personally, I am inclined to think that the national platform should be brief and direct, plain and unambiguous, and have for its dominant plank or policy, 'America for Americans.' I think our first and last duty is to develop our own country, feed and clothe our own people, attend to our own business, rather than attempt to adjust and settle the affairs of the world. In other words, the more I read and think, the more convinced I am that we should not depart from the national policies by which we have been guided for a century, and which policies have brought us through many dangers from weakness unto our present strength."

As a candidate Mr. Shortridge will of course seek the Republican nomination for United States Senator at the primary election to be held in August.

We shall say more of him hereafter; but this we now say: Samuel M. Shortridge deserves much of the Republican party and would make a great Senator.

"Of course," as a correspondent in the Oakland Enquirer puts it, "he lacks the long sack that other candidates will be able to display during the campaign. But he can make up for this in friendships long cemented, for I think it is a fact that Shortridge has done more consistent work for the Republican party than any other man during the past thirty years. In these days of politics it is very possible for a poor man to go to the United States Senate."

California Needs More Electric Power

Teh progress of California in wealth, population and industry will be retarded in proportion as hydro-electric development is delayed!

THEREFORE, Let it be the vital concern of every citizen in the State to do everything in his power to further the development and utilization of our great water-power resources.

HOW CAN YOU HELP

By making your contribution to the enlightened thought and sentiment of the community in favor of extensive power development.

By investing in Power Company securities, a safe and sound outlet for your surplus with assured income at the highest rate contissene with non-speculative investments.

By giving moral support and encouragement to every legitimate enterprise that looks toward the development of electricity from the rivers that ar enow running to waste.

WHY YOU SHOULD HELP

BECAUSE you and your business will benefit through trade expansion that must and does follow the extension of electric service.

BECAUSE much of the money needed must be gotten from Eastern investors and confidence at home begets confidence elsewhere Back up the industries that minister to your own welfare.

BECAUSE water-power resources are wasted only when unused. When it becomes necessary to generate electricity by means of fuel, other valuable resources that cannot be replaced are exhausted.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

JOHN E. COWGILL, CORRESPONDENT

Mr. J. A. Lockie of the De Luxe Cleaning and Dying Works has moved his family from San Mateo to San Carlos and has taken apartments at the Hurlbut's. Mr. Lockie has found San Carlos to be the ideal spot on the peninsula for a quiet resting place after a hard day's work.

Mr. E. B. Thawley, solicitor for the Examiner, was here last Wednesday to go over the territory and help the local agency pick up the low joints in the matter of subscriptions and renewals.

There is an opening in San Carlos for the best chief of police in California any time the Redwood City board of town trustees wants to go off half-cocked and surrender the popular James P. Coleman to our city manager. We will then look for a new town board for Redwood City at the next regular election.

Lack of an agreeable understanding between the new home builders of San Carlos and the representatives of the Mercantile Trust company of San Francisco as to who is to take care of the assessment and taxes accruing against these properties from street work is causing some delay in the work of the San Carlos Community Club's preparation for the establishment of an improvement district. Jno. E. Cowgill, president of the club, has the matter up with Mr. Wm. F. Berry, president of the trust company, and a satisfactory understanding it is hoped will be arrived at in a very short time, whereby we can proceed with these improvements without further delay.

Young Emile Lockie who is employed at the Mare Island yards was here to visit the week-end with his parents at the Hurlbut apartments.

During the past week Mr. F. H. Drake, manager of the San Carlos properties has sold home sites to the following parties, all of San Francisco: Geo. H. Sesmon; Miss Mabel Sevearngen, sister of Mrs. Sesmon; Wm. J. Landers, Harry H. Stanley, Mrs. C. Cummings and Frank Williams.

Mrs. India Howard from San Francisco was a week-end guest at the Hull-Shields home.

Wm. Jerring of Stockton, Mrs. Hattie Kent and her brother, Mr. Fred Jordan drove over from Stockton in their Hudson Super Six for a visit with their friend, Miss Beatrice Juneau one day last week.

Mrs. Mike Munson who has been visiting at the Geo. F. Walker home left last Wednesday for Salada to visit at the home of her brother, Harold Blythe before going on to her new home near Turlock, where her husband recently purchased a ranch after selling their apartments in San Francisco where they have lived for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shields, Miss Sophie Gleichner, Asa Hull and their friend Mrs. India Howard motored over to the Masonic Home at Decoto last Sunday for a visit with their old friend Mr. Henry Burner, a former merchant of San Francisco, and an acquaintance and friend of the Hull family for years. While at the home the party also met and had a visit with Mr. J. D. Smith who has been confined to the home a part of the time recovering from the injuries which he sustained in the auto accident at the intersection of Broadway and the state highway, Redwood City some time ago. Mr. Smith has so far recovered from his injuries that he is able to go about with the aid of one crutch. In fact, he has recovered sufficiently that he has made two trips to San Francisco only recently without assistance from any one. Mr. Smith asked to be remembered to all of his San Mateo county friends and acquaintances.

That we might enjoy the advantage of hospital care, which was impossible in her private home, Mrs. Virginia A. Lord was removed to the Red Cross hospital at San Mateo last Monday morning where she will remain until she has recovered sufficiently to be about again.

Obstacles Removed for Improvement

As all obstacles have now been removed for preparing plans for the formation of a street improvement district for San Carlos at the last regular meeting of the San Carlos Community Club the street committee was instructed to prepare plans and specifications as promptly as possible and submit same to an adjourned meeting of the club for their approval; which meeting will be held as soon as the committee is ready with their report. The matter will then be placed in the hands of Franklin K. Swart, the attorney of the club, who will complete the papers and request upon the Board of Supervisors for their approval and action. The club also requested the secretary Miss May Quinn, to address a letter to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company asking that they arrange to show San Carlos subscribers under a separate heading in the next directory issued, apart from that of Redwood City, that we will not continue to lose our identity with the little city to the south of us. In the absence of Mr. Dranzy Jones, who is now in Mexico, Mr. Asa E. Hull, the treasurer of the club was appointed a member of the street committee as it was decided that we needed one more man of practical experience, and who was thoroughly familiar with the conditions surrounding San Carlos upon this important committee. There are a few residents of San Carlos who have not yet attached themselves to the Community Club, an institution which is bound to wield a wide influence either for good or ill in our little comunity, and it is to their interests as well of that of their neighbor to affiliate with the only institution which has been established for this purpose, and as nothing can be acocmplished only through organization every citizen should take a lively interest in this society which promises to bring about the great improvements which are now under consideration.

As it has been decided that it is impossible to displace our present clerk and school trustee with a member of the tender twining sex, some are trying to discover one of the sterner kind who is willing to enter the race, but it seems it can't be done. It is practically as hard as trying to find some one to defeat Wilson for the third term.

Mr. H. Templeton of 1260 Waller street, San Francisco who is expecting to build a home some where down the peninsula in the very near future was here last Sunday to look over San Carlos properties, and as Mr. Templeton was very favorably impressed he expects to bring Mrs. Templeton down next Sunday to go over the properties with him, to help decide upon a suitable location.

Mr. Thos. L. Heany, brother of Mrs. Andrew J. Johnson, left last Thursday morning for New York City on the overland limited via. Southern Pacific. Mr. Heany expects to be absent from California about six months.

Mr. P. Meyers and his friend Mr. H. H. Habekoss with their families from San Francisco dropped in on J. E. Cowgill on the way to La Honda. Mr. Meyers was formerly connected with the Eitelweiss Restaurant on Ellis street in San Francisco which was one of the popular eating places of the metropolis at the time Mr. Meyers was connected with it; and particularly with the members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. Mr. Meyers is considering taking over a hotel and eating house at La Honda, and was on his way to look into the proposition at this time. Should Mr. Meyers decide to enter into this business at this popular San Mateo county resort, his success is assured as he should draw a big trade from among his many friends and acquaintances in San Francisco.

BY-GONE DAYS

Dear Denny—

You printed the last that I sent down your way,
So another tale I will relate,
Of a blacksmith named Ford who lived in out town
And the thing that was nearly his fate.

Now Ford in young life lost his very good wife
And had three little children to drill.
They were good to their dad, and not often bad,
Were Jackie and Maggie and Bill.

Each morning at eight Ford would stand at the gate.
And watch them start out for the school.
"For by the good Lord" said young Daniel Ford,
"No Ford child shall grow up a fool."

One day at his shop, Sheriff Lathrop did stop,
And said, "Dan you must come on a case.
I am short of a juror, the court's in a furor,
So hurry on down to the place."

Then Dan closed up the door, nothing loath I am sure;
And down to the Court House he ran.
Where without much ado, for the questions were few,
He was sworn as the last juryman.

At just twelve o'clock, Judge Fox buttoned his frock,
And said, "We'll call off until one."
Then he marched out of Court waiting not for retort,
For half of his day's work was done.

Then they locked up the jury with Ford in a fury.
He said "I must get out of here.
My children must eat and they're out on the street;
So I must go home, that is clear."

Then the window he raised and the sill he just grazed
As he jumped from the room and ran home.
Where he gave a good lunch to his own little bunch,
Then back to the Court he did roam.

He ambled right back without taking a tack
To some place he might quench his thirst.
But Tom Lathrop saw him and started to jaw him
In language that almost would burst.

He was brought to the box and faced Justice Fox.
Who said, "Your contempt must now wait."
Then the case was renewed and the points all reviewed
And a verdict brought in for the state.

Then the judge quickly started, while everyone waited
That a fine he would have to entail.
When after conjecture he gave Ford a lecture,
And sent him to jail without bail.

Then a lawyer whose fort was addressing the court,
His name was Alphabetical Smith,
Asked the Court to relent for Ford would repent
And he was needed at home by his kith.

The judge took his advice dismissed Ford in a trice
And the people went out on the street.
While Ford on a hop, ran and opened his shop,
For he knew that his children must eat.

—YOUR OLD FRIEND.

(Ed. note.) The case above related actually happened in the local superior court. The jury in the case was locked up and Ford ran away to give his children their lunch. Alphabetical Billy Smith who lost the case interceded for Ford and said that he would not appeal the case so the judge released Mr. Ford.

JAMES C. NEALON, CONTRACTOR, WHO BUILT COURT HOUSE PASSED AWAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

James C. Nealon, who built the courthouse here, passed away in San Francisco last Sunday night at the age of 71 years. Shortly after the fire and earthquake in 1906 Nealon and J. J. O'Brien took the contract to erect the structure at a cost of $125,000. Some time after the contract was awarded the price of lumber and materials took a decided slump and the contractors were able to make a good clean-up. It is said Mr. Nealon netted a profit of $28,500 on the contract. Nealon was a wealthy man and was at one time assessor of San Francisco. At the time of his death he was a state senator for San Francisco district.
